A CATALOG OF SERVICES, PROGRAMS & EVENTS

CONGREGATION EMANU-EL OF WESTCHESTER

WELCOME

Dear Emanu-El Community,

This program catalog is named “Jewish Journeys” because each and every one of us is on a unique Jewish journey. What we seek from our Jewish identity evolves over the course of our lives: milestone markers to differentiate time, avenues to create meaning with our children, affirmation of our identity, a sense of connection with the past, the promise of legacy into the future, joyful celebration, engaging learning, or moments of meaningful reflection. Our path from one to the next is our Jewish journey, a journey we uniquely construct year after year. Through rituals and services, classes and lectures, lifecycle events and community gatherings, we create and recreate our Jewish identity to meet our needs and to sustain our sacred inheritance.

Our congregation, too, is on a Jewish journey with our first new cantor in over four decades. If this year has a theme, it is certainly welcoming Cantor Isaac Sonett-Assor and his family to Emanu-El. Those who have already had the pleasure of praying with him have experienced his moving voice. Those who have had a chance to speak with him know his genuine curiosity. In the coming year, we will all sing with him, learn with him, laugh with him, and find new steps on our Jewish journeys through his leadership on and off the pulpit.

Ours is an ever-shifting world, one that seems to prove the old adage that the only constant is change. How beautiful, then, to have a tradition that can evolve with us while still providing a sturdy foundation from which to face our world. May the programs and services in this catalog enrich our Jewish journeys, foster gratitude, build resilience, affirm our values, and challenge us to thoughtfully make our world a better place.

Looking forward to a wonderful year together!

L'Shalom,

A Community Dedicated to Celebrating Modern Jewish Life

Congregation Emanu-El of Westchester is a community where Jewish life is as diverse and dynamic as the people who make it their own. Across generations and backgrounds, our members come together to pray, learn, celebrate, connect, and make a difference.

Our clergy and staff bring creativity, warmth, and purpose to an extraordinary range of experiences—from worship and Religious School to classes, social action, youth programs, cultural events, guest speakers, and gatherings that simply bring people together. With more than 400 offerings throughout the year, there are countless ways to engage, explore, and discover what speaks to you.

What truly sets Emanu-El apart, though, is the people. We believe a strong Jewish community does not require everyone to participate in the same way. Instead, we are strengthened by the many ways our members express their Jewish identities, pursue their interests, and contribute their own gifts and perspectives. Wherever you are on your Jewish journey, we invite you to find your place here—to discover opportunities for connection, learning, and meaning, and a community that feels genuinely like your own.

Keeping You Informed: Watch our weekly Emanumail and bi-monthly bulletins for new programs that we add throughout the year!

Program Guidance: Need someone to help find programs that you will find meaningful? Our Director of Programming and Engagement, Jane Dubro, would love to help! Please reach out to her at jdubro@c-e-w.org or 914-967-4382 x1021.

Get Involved: We welcome your involvement in the congregation. Beyond all our wonderful programs, we have a number of committees that would welcome your participation, input, and support. If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Abbie Levitt at alevitt@c-e-w.org or 914-967-4382 x1018.

Step-Up & Give-Back: Social Action & Social Justice

The greatest joy and fulfillment comes from helping others. The abundance that we enjoy, abundance our ancestors could not have imagined, allows us to donate our time and resources in ways that make a real difference for our neighbors. These acts of tikkun olam, repairing the world, allow us to express our Judaism in fulfilling, important ways.

Programming: Learning & Coming Together

Programming is a lynchpin of the community that we foster. And, though we are a congregation of almost 500 households, we program as if we were a congregation of 1,200 or more! That programming takes myriad forms to appeal to every congregant: Jewish study keeps our minds sharp and our souls searching. Jewish ethics rejects relativism and challenges us to take a moral stand. Jewish culture feeds our spirits and connects us with the past - and future. And sometimes, we just gather for fun! See what you can discover!

Committees

In addition to those listed on this page, we have a number of committees that would welcome your participation, input, and support. Emanu-El has many opportunities for you to share your talents, ideas, and time in support of our congregation. Our dedicated committee members and chairs help make ours the special community it is. Contact Executive Administrator Abbie Levitt at alevitt@c-e-w.org to learn more.

The Emanu-El Caring Community

Supporting one another during difficult times is at the heart of who we are. The Emanu-El Caring Community is a volunteer-led group dedicated to making sure our congregants feel cared for after the loss of a loved one. We're looking for volunteers to help put together and deliver bereavement baskets as needed - a simple but meaningful way to bring comfort and connection.

If you are interested in volunteering with the Caring Community, contact Michelle Schwartz at prettypaper1@gmail.com.

Social Action Committee

We love putting our Jewish values into action through tikkun olam! Our social action committee gets everyone involved with hands-on projects and donation drives that support our local community and Israel. We listen to what our partner organizations need, both here and abroad, and create ways for people of all ages to jump in and make a real impact. At Emanu-El, giving back is easy and meaningful - with collections, site visits, and volunteer opportunities, there's always a way to help make the world a little better. Interested in getting involved? Contact Social Action Co-Chairs Hedy Cardozo at hedozo@aol.com and Lauren Shalem at lauren.beitman@gmail.com.

Social Justice Committee

When treating symptoms is not enough, we step up to tackle the root causes of society's challenges. Our Social Justice Committee is dedicated to creating real change by advocating for important issues at the local, state, and federal levels, often partnering with the Religious Action Center (RAC) of Reform Judaism. There are many ways for congregants to get involved, whether big or small. By working closely with politicians and staffers, we carry forward the legacy of the prophets of Israel, striving for a more just and compassionate world - all while honoring diverse viewpoints and encouraging healthy debate. No matter your political leanings, we believe everyone can help make our world more whole and more holy. Interested in getting involved? Contact Social Justice Co-Chairs Hedy Cardozo at hedozo@aol.com and Marcie Aiuvalasit at marciena33@gmail.com.

PROGRAMMING: LEARNING & COMING TOGETHER

Beit Midrash: Torah for Times of Change

The Torah is filled with people navigating change, uncertainty, challenge, and transition. Abraham leaves everything familiar behind. Jacob wrestles with God and emerges transformed. Joseph rebuilds his life after everything falls apart. Moses struggles with the burdens of leadership, while the Israelites learn - often imperfectly - how to leave the past behind and face an uncertain future. This year in Beit Midrash, we will explore what these ancient stories can teach us about resilience, leadership, adapting to change, confronting fear, and finding strength in difficult moments. We will draw from a variety of texts and sources - biblical, rabbinic, historical, and contemporary - to uncover wisdom for navigating our own ever-changing world. Come every session or just drop in - all are welcome! Contact Rabbi Goldsmith for more information at hgoldsmith@c-e-w.org or 914-967-4382 x1013.
