

Summer is a natural time to pause, reflect, and appreciate the moments that have shaped our year together. As we look back, we're reminded that the true story of Congregation Emanu-El of Westchester isn't found in headlines or inboxes, but in the people who fill our sanctuary, classrooms, and gathering spaces with warmth, purpose, and joy.

This past year was rich with meaningful moments. We celebrated the High Holy Days, rejoiced with our b'nei mitzvah families, learned together through engaging speakers and classes, volunteered in service to others, traveled, prayed, laughed, and strengthened the bonds of our community.

We also gathered to honor Cantor Meredith Stone and celebrate her extraordinary 41 years of devotion to our congregation—a milestone that filled our hearts with gratitude as we enter a new chapter with Cantor Isaac Sonett-Assor.

The pages that follow capture just a glimpse of the experiences we shared. Thank you for being part of this remarkable community and for helping make Congregation Emanu-El such a vibrant and caring place. We hope these memories bring a smile as we look ahead with excitement to all that the coming year will bring.

A New Year, A Record Turnout: Looking Back at Our Tashlich Nature Walk (September 2026)

This year brought record numbers of congregants to Edith G. Read Wildlife Sanctuary for our annual Rosh Hashanah Day Two Nature Walk and Tashlich. There is something especially meaningful about welcoming the Jewish New Year outdoors, surrounded by the beauty of creation as we celebrate the anniversary of Creation itself.

We're excited that this coming year we will have two Nature Walk and Tashlich experiences: one designed specifically for adults and another created especially for families with children. See you then!

Sisterhood Boutique (October 2025)

The Sisterhood Boutique once again brought our community together for a vibrant day of shopping, connection, and support for local vendors.

Shoppers enjoyed a wide variety of handcrafted goods, jewelry, fashion, home décor, and holiday gifts. The event had a festive spirit and supported meaningful fundraising for the recently released hostages in Israel.

Cooking Series with Cara

Chef Cara led a warm and engaging series of cooking classes where we explored Jewish holiday recipes and cooking techniques. Each session focused on approachable cooking, creativity in the kitchen, and the joy of making and sharing food together.

Ben Shahn Exhibit at The Jewish Museum (October 2025)

At the Jewish Museum, we explored the work of Ben Shahn, whose art powerfully reflects themes of justice, labor, and social conscience. We looked closely at how his work uses visual storytelling to speak to both Jewish and American history.

Family Programs

This year, we loved welcoming parents into our classrooms for our grade-wide family programs! Parents had the opportunity to learn in an adult session with Rabbi Goldsmith, explore Jewish learning alongside their children with Jackie Kurland, and participate in our prayer and music sessions to experience all the fun for themselves.

Our youngest students spent the morning exploring different themes of Passover before making their own seder plates to use at their upcoming seders. From building Lego pyramids, to writing wishes for spring and the upcoming year, our 1st and 2nd grade families had a blast! Our 3rd graders spent time focusing on bedtime routines as we explored the bedtime Shema. We all have our own bedtime routines, but after making our own Shema stuffed animals, everyone took home something Jewish that could become a new nightly tradition.

For 4th and 5th grade, we had a HUGE family program with over one hundred people as we celebrated all of the Jewish holidays of the year in a couple of hours! Our teachers and staff all led different holiday stations where for eight minutes, we covered the basics of the holiday. These stations included eating apples and honey and blowing the shofar for Rosh Hashanah; sitting in a pop-up sukkah for Sukkot; planting for Tu B'Shvat; making mishloach manot and giving tzedakah for Purim; and eating ice cream while learning about the Ten Commandments for Shavuot. While it was certainly organized chaos, the goal was to give families the tools they need at home to celebrate each of our major Jewish holidays in less than ten minutes.

We love these moments with our families because they not only give us time with the adults in our Religious School community, whom we don't get to spend enough time with, but they also give children the opportunity to see how much their parents value what they are learning. Thanks for spending your Sundays with us!

Lower East Side - Kehila Kedosha Janina Trip (November 2025)

At Kehila Kedosha Janina Synagogue, we explored the rich history of Greek Jewish life on the Lower East Side. Visiting this historic Romaniote synagogue gave us a real sense of immigrant life, memory, and continuity in New York City, and how these stories continue to shape Jewish identity today.

Bagel Cooking Workshop (February 2026)

We had a wonderful hands-on experience learning the art of bagel making. From mixing and shaping the dough to boiling and baking, we learned both technique and the story behind this iconic Jewish food. What a fun, lively session filled with learning, laughter, and great bagels.

Dancing Queens and Persian Kings: ABBA Purim! (March 2026)

White glittery costumes, big hair, Scandinavian flair, and a little Purim magic made this a night to remember! Our clergy and band pulled out all the stops, bringing the joyful spirit of ABBA's music to the timeless story of Esther and Mordechai. Margie McCabe, Larry Cohen, and (then) rabbinic intern Zach Canali lent their talents and voices to the fun. Lay leader cameos featured an exasperated Stage Manager, a pompous ABBA Scholar, an insufferable Karaoke Guy, a vain Royal PR Agent, and, of course, an endlessly pedantic Persian Legal Counsel. The laughs came fast and furious! Keep an eye on the Emanumail and bulletin to see what we dream up for next year's Purim celebration.

Amsterdam Trip (April 2025)

This unforgettable journey through Amsterdam brought us into deep conversation about Jewish history, resilience, and renewal. Highlights included visits to the Jewish Cultural Quarter, Portuguese Synagogue, Anne Frank House, and the Hollandsche Schouwburg, along with canal tours and meaningful group reflections. The trip blended history, community building, and spiritual connection, giving us a powerful lens into Jewish life in Amsterdam—past and present.

Puns, Challah, and a Whole Lot of Love: Celebrating Debra & Larry Cohen (May 2026)

Between Larry's puns and Debra's challah, we all love the Cohens - but this celebration was not only about (comedy) bits and bread, it was about the way this couple has deeply impacted Emanu-El. What a joy to honor all that Larry and Debra Cohen have contributed to Congregation Emanu-El of Westchester.

From the days when Hayden and Josh first attended our Young Families programs until today, Larry and Debra have helped nurture and strengthen our congregation through their generosity, leadership, and friendship. Congregants from across generations came together to celebrate them while supporting everything that makes our synagogue community so special.

Our outstanding benefit staff leads, Abbie Levitt and Denise Eisler, together with a wonderful committee of volunteers, made the evening one to remember. Special shout out to Charlie Sindell for the great pictures! Thank you to everyone who attended, contributed, and helped make the night such a success!

The Farah Family Hineini Program

Hineini guides our B'nei Mitzvah students through meaningful learning, reflection, and hands-on service rooted in Jewish values—connecting tradition, community responsibility, and personal growth.

This year, students participated in Boundless Adventures, Sheldrake Environmental Center, the Anne Frank Exhibit, a Breast Cancer Walk, Family Trees with Terry, and a Lower East Side trip. Hands-on learning included cooking at Crawford and with Cara (including Chanukah cooking) and preparing meals for Lasagna Love, supporting families through chesed (loving-kindness).

Community engagement included three visits to Edenwald at Pleasantville Cottage, volunteering at Afya, a meaningful bereavement session with Rabbi Goldsmith, Krav Maga training with Director of Facilities Arnold Pitre, participation in the Midnight Run/Brunch Run, leading the Purim and End of Year carnivals.

Guest speakers included Holocaust survivor Ellen Kaidanow and Eric Holtz of Maccabi USA. The year culminated in Mitzvah Shabbat, where Hineini parents and students helped lead our mitzvah stations.

Family Shabbat Programs

From our Opening Shabbat BBQ in September to Mitzvah Shabbat in May, our year was filled with joyful Shabbat celebrations for families! A huge part of what makes our family services so special is our incredible band, whose energy and music help fill the sanctuary with singing, dancing, and spirit each month. In October, we celebrated Simchat Torah with a lively family service, and in November, we welcomed a record 59 new families to our school during our Consecration service (even more students joined our Religious School after that date)! Our Chanukah service featured Rabbi Joe Black, and everyone enjoyed, as always, eating latkes and sufganiyot while our BYOMenorahs lit up the sanctuary. Our cutest service of the year was our Pajama Shabbat, where our youngest congregants joined us in their PJs for "pizza, pasta, and prayer." Who doesn't love getting to wear pajamas in the sanctuary?

Our final family Shabbat of the year was Mitzvah Shabbat, which welcomed over 200 congregants! Thank you to Social Action co-chairs Hedy Cardozo and Lauren Shalem for another successful event! We loved having the pizza truck, and our congregation did an amazing job assembling packages and completing projects for 15 different organizations. 3A huge thank you to all of our volunteers, including our Hineini students and parents who helped run stations. We are already planning for a great year of family services next year and look forward to seeing you there!

A Beautiful Beginning for Our Cantor Emerita: Celebrating Cantor Stone's Historic Legacy (June 2026)

After last year's gala honoring Cantor Meredith Stone, it was hard to imagine how we could celebrate her remarkable legacy once more before she officially became Cantor Emerita. Somehow, we did.

The evening was filled with gratitude, music, laughter, and love as we reflected on Meredith's extraordinary 41 years of service to Congregation Emanu-El. Congregants shared moving tributes about the countless ways she touched their lives. American Conference of Cantors President Josh Breitzer joined our incoming cantor, Isaac Sonett-Assor, and former rabbi-educator, Jade Sank Ross, for a stirring musical tribute.

Rabbi Goldsmith led a moving ritual of light, symbolizing the light of Torah that Meredith has shared with generations of congregants. Finally, Meredith offered heartfelt reflections on our congregation's past, present, and future with her trademark honesty, warmth, wisdom, and grace. It was a beautiful evening and a fitting celebration of an extraordinary cantor and beloved friend.

An Enduring Connection: Mazel Tov to Our Extraordinary Confirmands! (May 2026)

Ma nishtana haConfirmation Class hazeh? What makes this Confirmation Class different from all other Confirmation Classes? This year we had group that was exclusively female. As these young women articulated themselves, the all-girl nature of the group led to a special sense of connection. From intense wrestling about the nature of God to inspiring discussions about Jewish peoplehood through the millennia, this class finished the year with a clear understanding of what it means to be Jewish - not a definition from their parents, not a definition from Rabbi Goldsmith, but definitions of their own devising that will stay with them as they finish High School and beyond.

Mazel Tov to Hadley Cohen, Ruby Deutsch, Lacey Esterow, Talia Goldsmith, Micah Grandwetter, Emmie Hodes, Olivia Hodes, Olivia Ifrah, Brooke Levine, and Sabrina Roth - our Confirmands!

Congregant Art Show (June 2025)

The annual Temple Members Art Exhibit celebrates the creativity within our community. The exhibit highlights a wide range of artistic voices and personal expression. This year's show features work by Patricia Bernstein, Al Bright (z'l), Shari Fredericks, David Fried, Janice Kaplan, Tom LoCastro, Arnold Pitre, Nicole Poteat, Terry Kessler Schwarz, Sandra Schustack, Charlie Sindell, Leo Weinberg, MJ Wolff, and Craig Zuckerman. It's always meaningful to see our community come together through art and celebrate the talent and imagination around us.

Lifelong Learning, Deep Commitment: Meet Our Newest B'nei Mitzvah (June 2026)

Commitment to Jewish life comes in many forms. It is reflected in volunteering, supporting the congregation, attending services and programs, celebrating life's milestones, and showing up for one another. This year, five members demonstrated that commitment in an extraordinary way: by becoming adult b'nei mitzvah.

Ranging in age from 18 to 83, they affirmed their connection to the Jewish people, Jewish tradition, and our congregation through months of dedicated study. They learned Hebrew and prayers, researched and wrote divrei Torah (speeches), and ultimately led a beautiful Shabbat morning service that we will not soon forget. One particularly moving moment came when dozens of congregants gathered on the bimah to lift a large tallit over the class in recognition of their accomplishment.

Mazel tov to Shelly Benerofe, Jane Meryll, Diana Millard, Geoffrey Raicht, and Maj Wickstrom. Our congregation is blessed by your dedication and commitment.

Come to Rye Playland for a beachside service with Rabbi Goldsmith and our new cantor, Isaac Sonett-Assor. This all-ages service is a relaxing way to end your week and reconnect with your CEW family. See you there!

Parking for this event is free (be sure to let parking booth attendants know you are with Congregation Emanu-El).

Directions to the beach (1 Playland Parkway in Rye): From I-95, take Exit 19 (Playland Parkway) to Playland. Pass through the Playland parking booths (tell them you're with Congregation Emanu-El of Westchester) and continue through the parking area and to the right behind the Dragon Roller Coaster. Pass through the second gate, past the boat launch on the left, and look for signs on the right with the temple name on them.
